Upon consideration of this case, upon evidence submitted as provided in the court, it is the judgment of the court that a total divorce be granted between the parties, that is to say, a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, upon legal principles.

CHILD SUPORT

In determining child support, the Court finds as follows:

The gross income of the father is approximately $ 1600.00 dollars monthly

The gross income of the mother is approximately $1500.00 dollars monthly

In this case the child support is being determined for one child.

The applicable percentage of gross income to be considered is

NUMBER OF CHILDREN	PERCENTAGE RANGE OF GROSS INCOME
1	17 percent to 23 percent *
2	23 Percent to 28 percent
3	25 percent to 32 percent
4	29 percent to 35 percent
5	31 percent to 37 percent

Thus, 24 percent of $800.00 (gross bi-weekly income of father) equals $193.00 every pay period as child support. The Court has considered the existence of special circumstances and has found the following special circumstances marked with an X to be present in this case:

- _____ 1. Age of the child
- _____ 2. A child's extraordinary medical costs or needs in addition to accident and sickness insurance, provided that all such costs and needs shall be considered info insurance is available.
- _____ 3. Educational costs
- _____ 4. Day care costs
- _____ 5. Shared physical custody arrangement, including extended visitation
- _____ 6. A party's other support obligations to another household
- _____ 7. Income that should be imputed to a party because of suppression of income
- _____ 8. In-kind income for the self employed, such as reimbursed meals or a company car
- _____ 9. Other support a party is providing or will be providing, such as payment of a mortgage
- _____ 10. A party's own extraordinary needs, such as medical expenses
- _____ 11. Extreme economic circumstances including but not limited to:

- (A) Unusually high debt structure; or
- (B) Unusually high income of either party or both parties, which shall be construed as individual gross income over $75,000.00 per annum

  X   12. Historical spending in the family for children, which varies significantly fro the percentage table.

13. Considerations of the economic cost-of-living factors of the community of each party, as determined by the trier of fact
- _____ 14. In-kind contribution of either parent
- _____ 15. The income of the custodial parent
- _____ 16. The cost of accident and sickness insurance coverage for dependent children included in the order
17. Extraordinary travel expenses to exercise visitation or shared physical custody
18. Any other factor, which the trier of fact deems to be required by the ends of justice, as, described below

Having found that no special circumstances exist, the final award of child support which Non-custodial parent shall pay for the support of the minor child not in his or her custody is 24% of his or her gross income, payable in bi-weekly installments in the amount of $193.00, beginning on the 15th day of May 2003, and payable weekly thereafter until the child becomes 18 years of age, dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated, except that is the child becomes 18 years of age while enrolled and attending secondary school on a full time basis, then such support shall continue until the child completes secondary school, provided that such support shall not be required after the child attains 20 years of age.

Whenever, in violation of the terms of the Order, there shall have been a failure to make the support payments due hereunder so that the amount of unpaid is equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month, the payments required to be made may be collected by the process of garnishment for support.
