Hi Brittany,

Please send the list that can still be disputed to Savannah warehouse management to investigate.

Send to Alejandra Beccera (alejandra.becerra@oalogistics.com) & Ron Capranos to research & advise.

If the situation doesn't warrant an immediate dispute from a carte blanche waiver for all shipments or a communicated delay due to hurricane, etc; Ron C. wants his teams to research if valid or not. I believe he's refusing late charges if shipped within 5 Business Days, even if the SLA is 2 or 3 Days. Check with him. You or Katy will need to regularly check HD's portal for non-compliance chargebacks available to dispute.

Sorry - I have to ask again. Even though past the Portal Dispute window - is there any chance you have a HD contact that will reverse these for you?

Best, Sherry

Hi Sherry,

I pulled the late shipment reports for the last few months. Please see the attached. It appears the only items we can still dispute are from November.... Which has 14 days left to dispute.

A dispute/deny by Accounting will only be successful with agreement/approval by someone at HD, unless documented SLA supports each shipment as on time. Will the contact you receive prior to it being too long?

For future, what is too long for HD? HD sent these July shipment chargebacks to JLA the middle of November. Are you or Katy able to see these (future) in HD's portal for you to dispute?

Thanks, Sherry

No it is far too long to dispute it at this point.

Hi Brittany,

Has HD agreed to reverse the $1069.01? If yes, when did they say our accounting team can expect to see the deduction reversal?

HD merchants can authorize their AP to retract/reverse based on your original requests into them a few weeks ago. However, awaiting response from HD has pushed JLA Accounting

Accounting needs to know the status and Laura needs to update the results from you regarding the Chargeback Investigation.

Thanks, Sherry

Hi Brittany,

Same for me – I don't find anything that is Vendor Dropship. There should be another HD guide that is for Dropship.

Thanks, Sherry

Hi Sherry,

I'm waiting to hear back from Home Depot regarding my inquiry. In the meantime, I'm filling out an agreement to reclassify the bath goods on their site. There was a mention of ve reference guide. I've attached it here. I'm still having trouble finding the answer in it though. Hoping I hear back from Home Depot soon.

Thanks!

Hi Katy,

November 18, 2022 is the date Accounting began the official need for Chargeback Investigation to hopefully dispute.

The $ deductions, PO details for the Charges would have been received from Home Depot a few days prior in an Invoice payment. It takes time to process & sort through the payment/d

Thanks, Sherry

Hi, what date were these July chargebacks received? Like what date did you receive the notification that chargebacks were issued?

Hi Brittany,

There may be more coming, however so far the $1,069.01 is an actual booked Chargeback from Home Depot for the POs on the attached Chargeback List.

They happen to be July Orders/Shipments. This hopefully is all they will charge for the month of July shipments – presuming they are accruing by month? August, September

The one PO I showed in the body of the email was an example from Home Depot's List.

Hi Laura,

Have you seen any other CB's for Home Depot Drop Ship?

Thanks, Sherry

Hi Sherry,

Did we only have this issue in July or are you just sending July as an example? I'd like to understand the full scope.

Thanks!

Hi Brittany,

We need your help and Home Depot Dropship expertise. We received a $1,069.01 Chargeback for 1 – 2 Days Early / Late Deliveries for over 200 July 2022 shipments.

List of Late shipments attached. Too many to manually look up each, however random review found the Closed Date in Column H matching our ASN Ship Confirmation Shippe

As example – the last PO on the list (Line 219) did ship Late on 7/10/22 IF we have an absolute 3 Business Day Ship Window. Carrier 1st Scan & Delivery Date for this PO is shc

E&E SO No.	Customer PO No.	Location	Tracking No.	Tracking Barcode	Order Date	Expected Ship Date	Shipped Date
64286207	83568916	SD2	1Z1X780R0395408172	1Z1X780R0395408172	07/06/2022	07/08/2022	07/10/2022 18:46:39

- Do we have an agreement with Home Depot that they will exempt and waive late shipments? Last I recall is Ron C. will not accept any Late Ship fees if shipped within 5 B
- Some dates appear to count Saturday & Sunday, not just Business Days. What is our Processing and Ship Window with Home Depot is it 3 Business Days or longer?
- If only 3 Days – do we need a longer window such as 5 Business Days?

Thanks, Sherry
