Chutney,

Driver assigned today had a drop trailer delivery and was unable to secure new equipment before PU.

Can we please reschedule this for tomorrow? We have a new driver scheduled for a confirmed live unload tomorrow morning 10 miles from your facility. This should be the last reset, as they have confirmed driver will stay attached to his trailer.

Thank you!

It's going to be tight. If we don't have a trailer secured shortly, we'll need to reset. I will let you know ASAP.

Kyle,

I apologize for the delay. Driver assigned to PU load is having to deadhead for an empty trailer. Can you please advise your shipping hours for today? We're trying to route him to the closest trailer available, but it may be 100+ miles out from your location.

Thank you,
