Design Concept :

- Following the simple and elegant design concept, the design adopts the combination of column and cone shape. The shape lines are simple and clear, and the sense of layers is rich.
- Metal elements with an innate sense of superior quality, revealing the beauty of steel and bone. When the cold tone of metal and natural stone collision, it give people a proper sense of beauty, but let it in the minimalist with a light industrial style of art, showing the personality and taste of young people.
