weaves underfoot.

from nature
with love

With nature comes simplicity, and with simplicity comes calm.

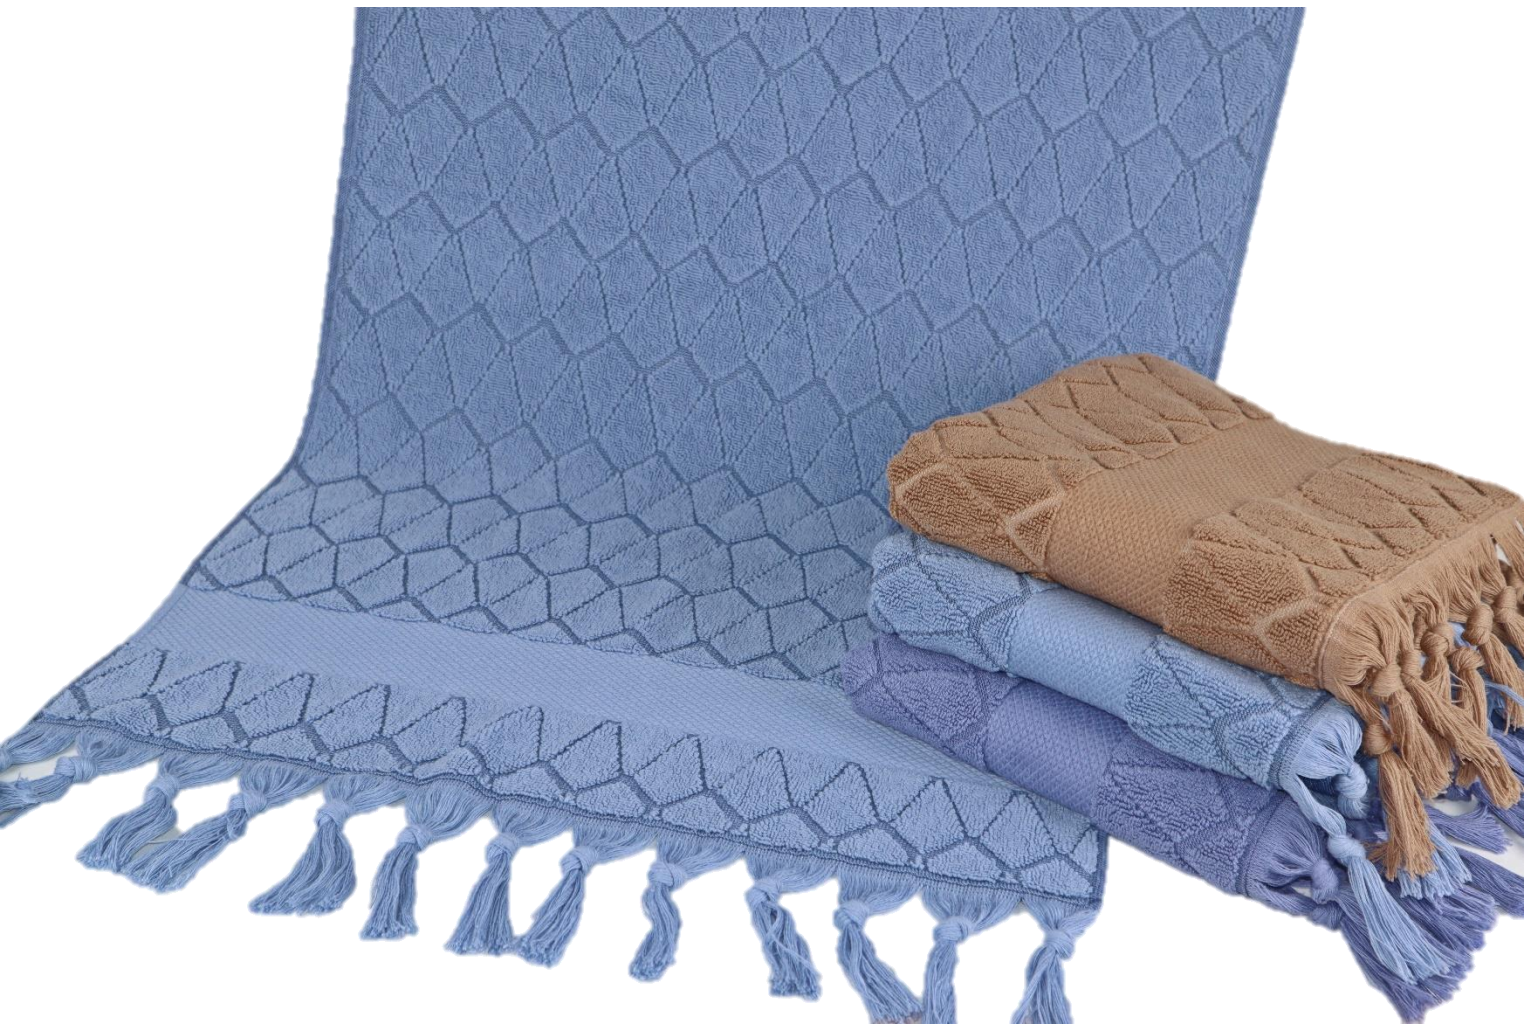

Creating your own place of sanctuary and a place to embrace the gifts of nature, has never been more important. Country, coast or somewhere in between, regardless of your location, there are endless ideas for nurturing a connection to nature in your home. Look at colours and textures in a new light – feel and see the joy in their imperfect finishes, roughened shapes, natural grains, and soft comforting weaves.

Featuring an all over vertical ribbed body and finishing in a neatly tailored tassels, this twisted towel is perfect for the master bath or the guest room. Harmony between ripped effect of terry and stitched effect of cotton border provides you rather special feeling of sanctuary while bathing. Moreover, our range of colours means that no matter the decor, we've got something that will match your palette
